Dear Brethren:

Thank you so much for inviting me to come and be a small part of your recent Youth Rally. Brother Glenn Martin and all your young people are to be commended for the very fine way in which this affair was conducted.

You were extremely considerate of my travel expenses. I wish to thank you for such concern and willingness to help. This shows an unusual degree of understanding and I am deeply appreciative of this.

I do hope that your work was strengthened by our coming. It was a pleasure to be invited.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
